Bridging the Gap

$5.00 a month. That is the most that anyone would currently pay to be a member of Mill Race Center. Our $60 membership fee elicits different reactions from different people. Some people think that it is too high, while others are shocked that it is so low. It is a matter of perspective, it seems. The reality is that we also offer scholarships and assistance, based on income, and have automatic discounts for older seniors (and those over 90 are free.) When we divide the annual membership fees by the number of members, the actual revenue from fees averages out to $39 per member. Our actual cost to provide services and to maintain the building is about $550 per member. That leaves a funding gap of $511 per member. We have worked very hard to bridge that gap, and we are grateful for the additional support that we have received from individual donors, corporate sponsors, Columbus Regional Health, The Heritage Fund Community Foundation of Bartholomew County, United Way, Thrive Alliance, and other grantors. (Our annual SEEK Conference is a revenue generator as well, so please mark your calendars for August 24th.)

Mill Race Center is YOUR center. We need your voice in the community to advocate and to spread the word about the exciting things that are happening at Mill Race Center. We are always looking for new and creative ways to bridge the funding gap. We want to hear your ideas, so please reach out to me at dmustard@millracecenter.org. We would love to have your help in bridging the gap.

Bodies in Motion is an exercise program designed to help participants reclaim flexibility and the variety of movement and strength that help make living more pleasurable. Reflexology @ MRC!
Reflexology is a healing art based on the premise that there are reflex areas in the feet and hands that correspond to all of the glands, organs, and parts of the body.

If a practitioner finds sensitive areas on your hands or feet, he/she should work them gently. Reflexology should be a pleasant, relaxing experience. Light touch will be just as effective as deep pressure because reflexology works nerves, not muscles.

Leslie Dyar, a certified reflexologist who received her training at I.U.P.U.I., is available for 30 and 60 minute sessions at the MRC on Monday and Tuesday mornings from 8:00-12:00 and Mondays from 4:00-8:00pm. All sessions are by appointment.

Prices are as follows:

The David Zinn 3-D Art Project
August 16-19

Mill Race Center, in partnership with the Visitors Center and through support from NTN Driveshaft and a grant from the Indiana Office of Community and Rural Affairs, is excited to announce that illustrator and artist David Zinn will be coming to Columbus.

David Zinn has been creating original artwork in and around Ann Arbor since 1987, serving all manner of commercial clients from small shops to major municipalities while simultaneously sneaking “pointless” art into the world at large.

While in Columbus, David will be working with students in the C4 Communications Pathway studying 3D Visualization and Graphic Design, Grandbuddies and MRC members in five workshop settings throughout the community to create three dimensional chalk art that will promote our upcoming Seek2017 conference; advancing age friendly communities. In addition, while here David will install a permanent, interactive, inter-generational art walk activity. Art Walk maps will be distributed (at Mill Race Center, Viewpoint Books, Hotel Indigo and the Visitor’s Center), providing hints of where to find David’s art, introducing his characters and allowing for a conversation and response among the Art Walk participants.

Mill Race Center members are invited to observe David’s workshops and watch how he inspires our community’s young minds and those interested in pursuing graphic design and art as a possible career. BCSC’s C4 graphics students will also be offering additional learning opportunities to our members later this year. Call MRC to register.

Being Mortal: Medicine and What Matters in the End Book Discussion

Tuesdays, September 5 at 10:00am

Cost: $20, includes cost of book

In Being Mortal, bestselling author Atul Gawande tackles the hardest challenge of his profession: how medicine can not only improve life but also the process of its ending.

Medicine has triumphed in modern times, transforming birth, injury, and infectious disease from harrowing to manageable. But in the inevitable condition of aging and death, the goals of medicine seem too frequently to run counter to the interest of the human spirit. Nursing homes, preoccupied with safety, pin patients into railed beds and wheelchairs. Hospitals isolate the dying, checking for vital signs long after the goals of cure have become moot. Doctors, committed to extending life, continue to carry out devastating procedures that in the end extend suffering.

Gawande, a practicing surgeon, addresses his profession’s ultimate limitation, arguing that quality of life is the desired goal for patients and families. Gawande offers examples of freer, more socially fulfilling models for assisting the infirm and dependent elderly, and he explores the varieties of hospice care to demonstrate that a person’s last weeks or months may be rich and dignified.

Full of eye-opening research and riveting storytelling, Being Mortal asserts that medicine can comfort and enhance our experience even to the end, providing not only a good life but also a good end.

* A reading schedule and book will be provided at time of registration.
* Class size is limited to 15 individuals.
* Discussion Leader: Leah Boas
